SUMMARY OF EXPERIENCE

A Grand Canyon river guide in the 1970s and 80s, Rebecca Lawton went on to work as a fluvial (stream) geologist, science journalist, and writer focused on water and climate. Her forthcoming book, Boatwoman: A River Memoir (Bison Books/U of Nebraska Press, 2027), tells her whitewater story and those of other boatwomen from that time and how the river shapes their lives now. Her literary honors include a Fulbright Visiting Research Chair, Ellen Meloy Fund Desert Writer Award, WILLA for fiction, and Pushcart nominations in prose and poetry.
